1. QUESTIONS

The following questions were received:

Is there a minimum warranty required?

No. The Bidder is required to describe the warranty applicable to the chairs and tables they would be supplying. Warranty is one component of quality on which East Hants will determine best value.

Would you accept pricing on 2 chair options or must it only be 1?

Each response must contain only one table or chair type (no options). A Bidder may submit more than one complete response, each of which will be considered on its own merits.
