

Clancy Waite, Policy Analyst

Clancy Waite will be starting on July 28, 2021, as our new Communications Coordinator for 12 months. She will be taking on Aurora's role while Aurora, and her husband Chris, add a beautiful baby to their family.

Clancy's most recent role was as public relations coordinator with Immigrant Services Association of Nova Scotia (ISANS). She was responsible for content development, social media and website management, event management, and more. She has also worked as the administration supervisor of ISANS Language Services team. She oversaw daily management of more than 20 specialized language programs, 80+ active classes, and 2,000 learners and simultaneously supervised seven program assistants to meet program outcomes and deliverables.

In addition to her work experience, she was volunteer lead for the 2019 Memorial Cup supporting more than 700 volunteers. (Another hockey fan hopefully!!!) She was responsible for the design and development of the volunteer handbook, coordinating with internal and external stakeholders located across the country, working to ensure the project's timely completion while meeting brand standards of multiple partners and sponsors.

Nathan Hoffmann, Policy Analyst

Nathan Hoffman accepted the new Policy Analyst position, starting July 29th in the Corporate Services office. The Policy Analyst will be supporting the organization with policy development/research/administration and will also provide research and special project support. Many of you will remember Nathan from his co-op placement with us last summer working on environmental research & policy, particularly Property Assessed Clean Energy programs. He impressed staff and Council with his presentation skills and professionalism. He recently completed his Master of Resource and Environmental Management at Dalhousie, where he took additional courses in public policy and administration through their Master of Public Administration program. He spent 3 years working for Dalhousie Residence supervising the front desk and supporting their facilities and operations folk with process and policy development. Welcome (back) Nathan!

Marlee Langille, Administrative Assistant (Planning & Development and Parks, Recreation & Culture)
