Subject: Fairbanks Centre Grand Re-Opening

The Fairbanks Centre in Dartmouth is re-opening after a complete renovation and there is a large amount of East Hants-based content in the new renovation. History, First Nations information, stories about Shaw Brick/Grand Lake/agriculture along the river, etc.

This has been influenced in part by East Hants' participation on the Shubenacadie Canal Commission's "Transitions Advisory Committee" (Catherine, Jo, and now myself have all sat on that committee).

Feel free to share if you think appropriate.

Subject: Fairbanks Centre Grand Re-Opening

Since its opening in 1987, the Fairbanks Interpretive Centre has welcomed visitors from all over the world to learn about the Shubenacadie Canal.

This redevelopment project incorporates new exhibits about the cultural and natural history of the waterway and offers new opportunities for hands-on engagement and learning.

Please join us as we celebrate the opening of the new exhibits. Event begins at 12:30. Opening remarks at 1:00pm.
