COMMUNIQUÉ

Get ready to dive into the excitement of FCM's 2026 Annual Conference and Trade Show (AC2026)—the largest gathering of elected municipal officials in Canada!

Be part of shaping what comes next from June 4 to 7 at the Edmonton Convention Centre. This year's theme, Building the future together, reflects our shared commitment to creating strong, sustainable and resilient communities across Canada. Join us as we bring local leaders, federal partners and industry innovators together to explore the ideas, partnerships and solutions that will strengthen local governments and shape Canada's future from the ground up.

As we celebrate 125 years of municipal leadership, AC2026 is your opportunity to help build the next chapter—one where local governments are equipped to drive Canada's success for generations to come.

Registration officially opens on February 26. Here's what you can do in advance:

- Explore the AC2026 website: Browse the latest AC2026 information and get familiar with the program.
- Discover our many study tour options: During registration, you'll be able to reserve your spot for one (1) study tour of your choice. These tours will showcase a range of Edmonton municipal projects and facilities, offering insights into key issues affecting communities across the country. Review the descriptions before the launch, as study tour registration operates on a first-come, first-registered basis.
- If you're bringing company to AC2026, take a look at our diverse, family-friendly companion tour options before registration opens. A Companion Combo Pass will also be available during online registration for an unforgettable experience.
- Plan your trip to AC2026: Plan a trouble-free and discounted visit to Edmonton by visiting the Travel and Accommodation pages on our website. When registration launches, you will have access to reservations for the hotel blocks and to the travel codes.

Don't miss out—once registration launches, you'll be able to take advantage of Early Bird pricing until April 23.

See you in Edmonton this June!
